

DO YOU KNOW WHOM I AM TALKING ABOUT?

Being like Jesus.

Preaching by example.

From the mouth of the little children....

Actions speak louder than words

Sr. Gloria, in one of our Village Schools of Bihar, was instructing the First Communion Children in the Church compound under a big Banyan tree.

She was telling all about Jesus' kindness, concern and love for the people,

"Jesus:" She said, "fed the hungry, cured the sick, played with the children, talked with the lepers, respected the beggars, forgave the sinners, consoled the crying, befriended the lonely"

As she was speaking eloquently about Jesus' love and kindness, she realized that sitting among the Catholic children, there was a small Hindu girl, attentively listening to her.

She thought, I guess this little girl does not know whom I am speaking about. So, she asked her: "Darling, do you know whom I am talking about? The girl replied: "Yes sister, you are talking about Fr. John!" – (Fr. John happened to be the Parish Priest of that village -)

Sr. Rose told her, "No, darling. I am talking about Jesus!" Quickly, the little child retorted: "But, Sister, Fr. John also, does all the things you told us Jesus did!"
