

ACTIONS ARE MORE CONVINCING THAN WORDS

(From one of Aesop's Fables)

Your actions speak louder than your words.

A man who had traveled to many foreign lands was a big boaster. On returning to his native place, he began telling his countrymen tall tales of the many wonderful deeds he had done abroad. Among other things, he said that when he was at Crete he had leaped to such a distance that no man ever could do it before. He assured them that many persons, who saw it, could be called call as witnesses. One of the bystanders interrupted him and said: "Now, my good man, if this be all true there is no need of outside witnesses. We shall be the witnesses ourselves. Suppose this is Crete, Leap now here in front of us. "
