

THE MILK- MAID'S DREAMS

(From Aesop's Fables)

Live in the present

Do not daydream

Act more and plan less.

A farmer's daughter was carrying a Pail of milk from the field to the farmhouse, when she started day-dreaming.. "With the money which this milk will fetch me, I will buy at least one hundred eggs.

The eggs will produce me One hundred chickens. When chickens become ready for the market they will fetch a high price, then, I shall have money enough to buy a new gown. In that dress I will go to the Christmas parties, where all the young fellows will propose to me...

At this moment, she tossed her head and down fell the milk pail, and with the pail all her dreams collapsed.
